

A scenic view of a hillside in San Sebastián, Basque Country. In the foreground, a green metal fence runs along a path, with a small red and white sign attached. Behind the fence is a dense garden of green bushes and a tall, spiky plant. In the middle ground, a modern multi-story apartment building with orange and yellow balconies is nestled among trees. The background shows a steep, green hillside with a road and a bridge, under a clear blue sky.
